

LANGLADE COUNTY RESOURCES

Alcoholics Anonymous

Alcoholics Anonymous is a global, peer-led mutual aid fellowship focused on alcohol recovery through its Twelve Step program. The program is built on the idea that alcoholics can help each other achieve and maintain sobriety. AA emphasizes anonymity, a lack of hierarchy, and non-professionalism, with no affiliations or endorsements of any kind. Meetings are held at 1005th Avenue, Antigo on Sunday, Wednesdays, and Thursdays.

Alliance for Substance Use Prevention of Langlade County

Alliance for Substance Use Prevention of Langlade County is a coalition that meets quarterly on the third Thursday of the month from 11:30am-12:30pm in the board room at the Langlade County Health Department or via zoom. The goals of the Alliance is to reduce drug and alcohol misuse in Langlade County and to become a community that supports recovery by increasing community collaboration and engagement. Some examples are our Vape Disposal program that is ready to implement in our schools, Drug Take Back Days, and a Screenagers Membership for the 2025-2026 school year! This will consist of the movie Screenagers: Under the Influence, addressing vaping, drugs & Alcohol in the Digital Age plus a full ready to go curriculum with a student version of the movie. For more information call: 715-627-6250

Broken Arrow

Broken Arrow is a faith-based transitional living home for men in recovery, designed to help them transition toward long-term recovery and independent living. They provide several Christ-centered support groups that meet weekly and the opportunity to engage in community service. For more information call 715-219-1760 or email rzarda@brokenarrowministries.org

Families Anonymous

Families Anonymous (FA) is a 12-step fellowship for families and friends of people struggling with substance abuse or related behavioral problems. It provides a support network and offers resources for those whose lives have been impacted by addiction. FA meetings are free, confidential, and open to anyone concerned about the impact of substance abuse or related issues on their family or social circle. Meetings can be attended in person or online
